

Jeannette Horrocks

Jeannette is a keen tennis player believing that giving back to the community is very important. In 2014 she took up the President's position at the Blow Hole Tennis Club (after arriving in Kiama in 2010) where she worked tirelessly. Jeannette has many interests including playing Bridge and Walking each morning with friends around Kiama. Previously living in Canberra Jeannette worked in the Public Service in various positions including the Justice Hope Royal Commission and in Ministerial Staff positions for a number of backbenchers. Prior to this Jeannette spent four years at the ANU in a research position.

Jackie Parker

Jackie started tennis later in life and is a keen social player organising and enjoying the Wednesday morning social tennis. Jackie started Challenge Tennis in the Menai area with her husband Bob Parker in the early 1990 where she assisted with the administration of the business including the scheduling of the tennis coaching sessions. Jackie is keen to promote tennis and develop tennis opportunities at the club. Jackie moved to Kiama in 2008 to be closer to her family and has been a club member for the past four years. Jackie is very involved in voluntary community work mainly in the aged care sector.

Ann Boulton

Ann arrived in Kiama in 2012 from Sydney and joined the Blow Hole Tennis club shortly after, and took up the secretary position in 2014 after the resignations of both the President and Secretary. Ann was involved in deputations to the Kiama Council in the early stages of the amalgamation with the Blow Hole TC. Ann played tennis in Ireland as a child growing up playing with friends and later took up basketball, volleyball and has a black belt in karate. Ann enjoys social tennis playing three times a week. During her working life Ann has held many corporate positions including Executive General Manager of Operations and Data at Veda, Chief Operating Officer at Perpetual and Data Director at TransUnion.

Hannah Jones

Hannah started playing tennis at age 7 and was taught by her father. From playing Saturday Morning Comp for Kiama Hannah progressed and in Year 6 was selected in the South Coast PSSA team and travelled to Inverell for the state championships where she performed well. Hannah holds a Tennis Australia Junior development Coaching certificate and coaches at both Kiama and in Sydney working at the City Community Tennis Centre at Surry Hills, managed by Jensen's Tennis. Hannah is currently working with younger children from the age of three and is enjoying the experience especially being part of their early tennis and gross motor development.

David Graham

David is a keen tennis player representing Kiama and Wollongong in both junior and senior competitions since 1968. David has played in ITF Senior events in singles and doubles since 2001 with many highlights including participation in the World Championships in 2005 (Perth), 2007 (Turkey) and 2009(Majorca Spain). Currently David is an active tennis official and attends many junior and AMT events for Tennis Australia as a Court Supervisor. In 2012 David worked with local senior players and officials to generate interest in the NSW Hardcourt Tennis Association where Kiama teams participate in Sunday Inter district. David worked as an assistant coach at Kiama for long term coach Stuart O' Shannessey until 2003.

Darrel Wray

Darrel is a keen tennis enthusiast playing social tennis on Tuesday mornings. Darrell from 1989 worked as an Engineering Instructor on B747 and B767 airframes and engines at the training school at Mascot. In Sydney he played mixed tennis on Wednesdays evenings, Saturday afternoon and Mens comp on Sunday mornings in the southern suburbs of Sydney. After retiring to Merimbula for 5 years he became involved in social tennis and was elevated to the president's role at the Merimbula Tennis Club for two years before relocating to Kiama. Darrell brings a lot of club tennis experience to the role of Board member.

David Lehman

South African born David moved to Australia in 2001 and has always been an active tennis player. As a junior player was an inter-provincial representative in South Africa and played competition tennis for many years in Johannesburg. Administratively was a Board member of the South African Tennis Professionals Association and President of Northcliff Country Club in Johannesburg. Served on Kiama Board for first time in 2014 and is currently still an active Division 1 and keen Inter District player.

Karen Koks

Karen, as a child commenced tennis lessons with Karen Wells in Bowral and then Bob Byatt in Moss Vale. After moving to Kiama in 1997 Karen initially played afternoon comp at Beaton Park and now enjoys Ladies Night comp and Cardio Tennis. Karen has a young family and encourages the girls to participate and enjoy the game of tennis. Karen is the KTC Treasurer and enjoys the role. Karen's very favourite tennis player from the past is Mats Wilander.

Bob Morgan

Bob Morgan attended Drummoyne Boys High School and played all of his early tennis in the Balmain District of Sydney. Bob's father was an engineer and Bob followed in his footsteps completing his university studies and taking up an engineering position at the Liddell power station in Muswellbrook. Bob joined the Penguins Tennis Club in Muswellbrook and played tennis regularly. Later Bob moved to Bunbury in W.A. and worked at the Collie Power Station. At Bunbury Bob enjoyed his tennis on the grass courts and was involved in the tennis committee in its endeavors to develop the local club. In 2001 Bob retired to Kiama and has been a very active member of the Kiama Tennis Club since 2002. Bob served as President of Kiama Tennis Club from 2008 to 2014 during which time he put in countless hours to improving the Club and continues today with a major drive around growing membership.

Joe Moseley

Joe Moseley is the head coach at Kiama Tennis Club and proprietor of Kiama Tennis Coaching which operates exclusively at Kiama Tennis Club to provide coaching for all ages and abilities

Joe Moseley has been a tennis player for most of his life, starting by playing for his school, district and state in South Africa after which he became an apprentice to his coach at the age of 17. After immigrating to Australia in 2001, Joe worked for Beaton Park Tennis Club, Wollongong before joining Kiama Tennis Club as a coach in 2003. Joe has been head coach at Kiama Tennis Club for over 10 years as well as serving as junior development officer on the Board of Kiama Tennis Club for many years. Joe has South African qualifications as a tennis instructor as well as being Tennis Australia certified as a Club professional Coach.

Joe is qualified to coach all ages from Mini Tennis through to high performance tennis coaching. He is passionate about promoting a life- long love of tennis in his pupils by providing quality tennis coaching to the Kiama community.